USM SCHOOL OF CONSTRUCTION BUILDING FUTURES SUMMER CAMP 2017

JUNE 25 - 29, 2017

Camp activities include:

- Work on fun projects guided by construction professionals in the USM School of Construction labs
- Learn about 2D & 3D visualization
- Enjoy recreation on campus, such as the pool, Payne Center, movie night, & a rock climbing wall
- Experience a week in the life of a student at Southern Miss!

The USM Building Futures Summer Camp is designed for 8th through 10th graders to explore hands-on building activities with other students. Over the course of a week, students will build a small structure from start to finish. They will explore building design, architectural plan reading, hammering, soldering copper, concrete, roofing, electrical and much more, all with students their age and taught by certified professionals.

Students will have a blast learning from experienced instructors, exploring the USM School of Construction, and trying something new all on the beautiful University of Southern Mississippi campus!

COST: $500 total; partial scholarships are available!

LODGING: New Century Park Residence Hall

MEALS: Provided by USM's Fresh Food Company

Join the USM Building Futures Summer Camp to explore a complex, important, and engaging career in the design and construction industry!
